SAARBRUCK, Rhenish Prussia, Jan. 28.—A fire damp explosion occurred about 8 o'clock this morning in the Bildstock shaft of the Reden mine, at St. Johannon-Daar, opposite this town. Up to 2 o'clock this morning the bodies of 164 dead miners had been taken out of the mine and 17 men dangerously injured had been rescued and more than a hundred miners were missing. There were about 800 men working in the shaft when the explosion occurred, but half were not in the galleries.

INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION INQUIRY

vs.
U. S.

THE FIRST MATTER TO BE TAKEN UP BY THE INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION WILL BE THE COMPLAINT OF THE PACIFIC COAST JOBBERS AND MANUFACTURERS' ASSOCIATION THAT THE SOUTHERN PACIFIC IS UNLAWFULLY EXACTING TOLL ON ALL FREIGHT COMING INTO THE CITY ON THE COAST LINE. THE SOUTHERN PACIFIC CHARGES THIS TOLL, AMOUNTING TO FIVE CENTS PER TON, ON ALL GOODS COMING IN THIS WAY. THE JOBBERS AND MANUFACTURERS' ASSOCIATION HAS ENGAGED THE SERVICES OF SETH MANN TO CONDUCT THE CASE. THE SOUTHERN PACIFIC WILL BE REPRESENTED BY E. F. DUNN.

Leading Railroad Officials Are Present at the Investigation.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 28.—A group of Eastern men prominent in railway and legal circles arrived here yesterday in order that they might be in San Francisco during the inquiry to be conducted today, Tuesday and Wednesday by Franklin K. Lane, the Interstate Commerce Commissioner. In addition to Commissioner Lane, who went directly to the home of his brother in the Western Addition, the visiting delegation consists of J. C. Stubbs from Chicago, traffic director of the Harriman lines, with his secretary, R. F. Wilson, and C. Mosier, another attaché of the Chicago office; ex-Judge R. S. Lovett from New York, counsel in the East for the Harriman system, and C. A. Severance from St. Paul, retained by the Government to act as legal questioner for the Commission, accompanied by his secretary, J. B. Sanborn of St. Paul. All these men have apartments at the Palace Hotel, where Mrs. Stubbs is with her husband. At the St. Francis also is Frank M. Young of Washington, D. C., secretary to Commissioner Lane.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 28.—Interstate Commerce Commissioner Franklin K. Lane today began an investigation of the complaints of jobbers and manufacturers that the Southern Pacific Company is collecting a toll of 5 cents a ton on all freight received here, whether it comes over the wharves of the State or not.

The State charges this toll when the goods pass over the wharves, but it is alleged that the railroad company collects this toll from shippers even on freights that come up the Coast road and that never reach the wharves.

The jobbers and manufacturers claim that this toll should not be collected by the railroad when it is not paid by the railroad to the State.

Commissioner Lane will also continue the inquiry into the facts connected with the so-called Harriman merger.

Among those who arrived to attend the hearing are J. C. Stubbs, vice president of the Harriman lines and traffic director of the Southern Pacific and other companies; Attorney C. A. Severance of St. Paul and R. S. Lovett, one of the Southern Pacific's legal advisers in New York.

The hearing opened at 10 o'clock in the rooms of the United States Court of Appeals.

The loss will aggregate $300,000. All but four of the firemen have been rescued. Two are believed to be dead. A third fireman named Norton is missing and believed to be dead.

MADAM'S STATEMENT.

Editor TRIBUNE.—It has been stated that the delegation, which is elected in the First ward, will nominate me for Councilman from the ward, is against Hon. F. K. Mott for Mayor, and Fred C. Turner for City Engineer. I desire to state that this is absolutely untrue. The delegation in the First ward which is pledged to me is also for Mott for Mayor and Turner for Engineer, as well as Burns for Councilman-at-large. I have not tried to influence the delegation for any person except as stated above. I am for harmony in the ward as far as possible, but at the same time I want fair play.

For myself I am only asking for a re-nomination for the Council from this ward. I have done my duty in the City Council and have worked for the best interests of my constituents, and the city at large. I believe I will get the united support of the Republicans in the First ward. I have all-

OFFICE SAFES OPENED AND LOOTED BY CLEVER ROBBERS

Handles of Combination Locks Stolen— Thieves Disappear, Leaving No Clues for the Police.

Two clever safe robberies were committed in the heart of the business section of the city last night or early this morning, and the thieves have covered up all traces of their theft and have eluded capture by the police. The offices of the Gas Consumer's Association and George Buell, in the Macdonough building, were entered by the thieves, and the safes in both places were opened by their combinations, robbed and then closed, the handles of the combination locks being stolen.

It is thought by the police that the thefts were committed some time after midnight. The door of the Gas Consumers' Association, which is located in Room 23, was forced open with a one-inch jimmy. The combination of the safe was worked, the safe opened and $24.50 was stolen from the money drawer. In order to cover up their work and avoid a possible immediate alarm, the burglars closed the safe again and then broke off the handle of the combination lock.

OPENED WITH JIMMY.

The same thing was done in the office of George Buell, Room 3 in the Macdonough building. The door was forced open with a jimmy, the safe opened and closed and the handle broken from the combination lock. How much was taken from this office is not known, as the loss of the handle on the lock caused considerable difficulty in opening the safe.

The police are confident that the thefts were committed by burglars who are old at the business. Everything was done with neatness and dispatch, and the authorities fear that similar jobs will be attempted by the same burglars.

OFFICE WRECKED.

Burglars broke into the offices of G. T. Forsythe of the Southern Pacific

8 JURORS CHOSEN TO TRY THAW

Persons who are familiar with trials like that of Thaw comment on the absence of women, with the exception of a few newspaper writers, from the courtroom. It is expected that this will be kept up during the trial. Justice Fitzgerald has made up his mind that the trial is not a hippodrome, and all who have not a legitimate reason for attending the trial will be excluded.

News stories have been told about Thaw's generosity and the way his family is throwing around money, but there has been no indication of it in the Tombs. When the Tombs keepers speak about how careful Thaw is with his money they illustrate their story by remarking that the newsboy has to give Thaw every week an itemized bill of the number of papers delivered to his cell.

Harry Thaw's attorneys say: "Stanford White's character will not be assailed in this case by the defense. The defense propose to conduct its case along clean, respectable and absolutely legal lines. It remains for the District Attorney to inject into this trial anything that would cause the introduction of testimony that would tend to blacken the character of individuals and degrade the community."

HERE ARE PHOTOGRAPHS OF TWO PRETTY ACTRESSES WHO WILL APPEAR AT TRIAL.

NEW PANEL IS SUMMONED BY COURT

Hundred More Talesmen Are Desired, From Which to Select Four Jurors.

NEW YORK, Jan. 28.—There was a vacant seat at Thaw's counsel table today—the one usually occupied by Delphin M. Delmas, the California attorney. It was stated that Mr. Delmas is confined to his apartments by a severe cold. His law partner, Thos. McPike, was present, along with the four other attorneys who have the defense in hand.

NEW YORK, Jan. 28.—One more juror was annexed today to the panel which is to try Harry K. Thaw for the killing of Stanford White, making eight thus far selected. Seventeen talesmen were disposed of before a satisfactory juror was secured.

The rapid manner in which the talesmen offered valid excuses to the court, or declared that their opinions were so firmly fixed as not to permit of a change, caused District Attorney Jerome to fear an exhaustion of the special panel before the jury was completed, and orders were sent from the courtroom summoning an additional 100 talesmen, who will respond tomorrow. The new juror is Charles D. Newton, a retired merchant, aged about 65 years of age.

COURT IS COLD.

Court ended abruptly shortly after noon. There had been a break in the heating apparatus of the court building and the temperature was uncomfortably low. A recess of two hours was ordered.

All the members of the Thaw family were in court today with the exception of Josiah Thaw. The Countess of Yarmouth has sufficiently recovered from the cold she contracted last week to again be in attendance. Her constant coughing was a refutation of the statement that she, re-

TERRIFIC RAIN SQUALL; 100 PEOPLE DROWNED

HONGKONG, Jan. 28.—A terrific rain squall broke over Hongkong this morning, and in the space of ten minutes sank over fifty Chinese craft in the harbor, more than a hundred natives being drowned. There were no casualties among the white people. Launches from the shore rescued many occupants of swamped boats. The harbor was littered with wreckage from the sunken junks. During the squall the river steamer Paul Bean broke adrift, but was brought to anchor without sustaining any damage.

BRIEF ILLNESS ENDS LIFE OF PROMINENT MERCHANT

GEORGE HUMPHREY.

George Wallis Humphrey, Well-Known in Business and Fraternal Circles.

George Wallis Humphrey, one of Oakland's prominent merchants, passed away Saturday night at Fabiola hospital after an illness of two months, during which time he suffered from acute nephritis. In the death of Mr. Humphrey this community has sustained a distinct loss, as he was active in business, social and fraternal circles. Mr. Humphrey was a member of the firm of Dean & Humphrey, with a furniture business on Thirteenth street, near Washington. Six years ago he entered the store of James B. Dean as a bookkeeper. His integrity and ability won for him rapid strides in the commercial world, and he became a member of the firm of Dean & Humphrey. Prior to engaging in the furniture business in this city, Mr. Humphrey was connected with the Westfall Milling company as chief salesman. He was a Scottish Rite Mason, a member of the local lodge of Elks and was a prominent and active member of the Reliance Club.

EIGHT JURORS ARE SECURED

mained away because of dissensions in the family as regarding Mrs. Harry Thaw and her companion, Miss Mae McKenzie.

TO SECURE JURY.
NEW YORK, Jan. 28.—The trial of Harry K. Thaw for the killing of Stanford White was resumed this morning before Justice Fitzgerald in the criminal court branch of the Supreme Court. During this week a jury will be selected and considerable testimony, possibly all the prosecution will offer, will be heard, it is hoped. It will probably be at least two days before the five jurors still needed will be obtained. Wednesday or Thursday, the latest the district attorney should be able to make his opening address to the jury and begin his direct examination of witnesses.
There has probably never been a murder trial in this country which for sustaining interest has equalled the Thaw case. While the obtaining of a jury is a dry, monotonous work, crowds begged for admission all last week. Now that testimony which is generally expected will be heard, the public and curious will appear in great numbers. Justice Fitzgerald has decided on stern measures, however, to curb the tendency of the mere sight-seer. He has issued an order that no time during the trial shall spectators be admitted.
Only those having positive business in the court will be admitted.
Justice Fitzgerald has decided that the spectators, particularly women, who appear at their former location of the order has been made imperative, and the public and court officers have been told to obey it to the letter.

INTEREST IN TRIAL.
The interest in which the trial is held is shown particularly by the arrival of visitors at the New York Courthouse. Residents of Pittsburgh, naturally, are in the majority. The apparent desire of the defense to hasten the trial or at least to complete the jury is thought to be a sign that some move now or soon will be made. There have been so many surprises in seven months that a new move on the part of the defense is being looked for.
Counsel for Thaw held a conference yesterday lasting several hours, presumably in preparation for the defense. Mrs. Harry Thaw was present throughout the meeting.

WHAT DELMAS SAYS.
Delphin M. Delmas, after the conference, when asked to outline the defense said:
"It would hardly be professional to discuss our case. You may say, however, that it will come strictly within the statutes of New York. There is no higher law in this State, and all this talk about the 'unwritten law' of honor. Nor is there any efficacy of a plea of emotional insanity. There is really no such thing. A man may be temporarily insane, but that is quite another matter."
Mr. Delmas expects that another witness will be required to fill the jury box.

PRISONER'S WIFE.
When the trial was resumed today there remained five jurors to be chosen from among the less than 100 takersmen generally conceded that the taking of testimony will not be possible before Wednesday.
Mrs. Evelyn Nesbit Thaw arrived nearly half an hour before the morning session was scheduled to begin. She was accompanied by Miss McKenzie. Miss McKenzie today declared there was absolutely no truth in the report that there had been dissension in the Thaw family, and said it was untrue that any dissension had arisen over her presence in the courtroom.
Young Mrs. Thaw wore the dark blue dress which has now become familiar to those in the courtroom, and again her features were hidden beneath a closely drawn veil.

OFFICE SAFES ARE OPENED

Company, located at Thirteenth and Franklin streets, some time last night, and as a result the place was a wreck this morning. All that the burglars are known to have stolen was $5 worth of stamps. The police have made an investigation, and it is thought that the job was done by small boys.

The front door of the office was opened by sawing a small opening near the keyhole. The key was turned by reaching a hand inside the door through this small aperture. Another door on the inside of the office was dealt with in a similar manner.

After gaining entrance to the offices, the burglars proceeded to play havoc with the furniture and desks. The top of Forsythe's desk was ripped off and the papers thrown about the floor. The chairs were saved up, as were the desks and other furniture in the place.

Forsythe could assign no reason for any antagonism against him on the part of any small boys, but the manner in which the office was wrecked shows that the sole purpose of the marauders was not robbery.

Captain of Police Petersen is investigating the burglary, and he asserts that he does not believe the theft was committed by the same men who entered the offices in the Macdonough building. He is confident that small boys committed the deed.

The Government Says

the only safe whisky is the bottled kind, from which we may draw the inference that whisky in barrels is unsafe because tampering is possible without so many chances of detection. Personally, I should prefer drinking ardent spirits from a barrel, if I had to use it at all. I would get through the habit more expeditiously and save both time and money, as I could buy in carload lots. It is not the risk of tampered whisky, but tampered nerves that I fear in adopting this plan, however. When the government will provide free whisky and label it 'Safety Brand'—can be used with impunity. I will look into it. Meanwhile, I favor soft drinks—the Lehnhardt kind. ## LEACH NOT A CANDIDATE

Will Not Seek Republican Nomination for the Office of City Attorney.

Abe Leach, the rising young attorney, announced this morning that he will not allow his name to go before the Republican City Convention of the Municipal League convention for the nomination of City Attorney.

Attorney Leach said this morning that his private business has increased to such an extent that he could not possibly entertain the hopes of carrying on a campaign for the public position and that if elected he could not do justice to either office.

"My private business has increased two-fold since giving up the position of prosecuting attorney in the Police Court," said Mr. Leach this morning, "and after thoroughly considering the proposition, I have decided to retain my private business in preference to entering politics at the present time."

MISSIONS ALL THIS WEEK

Episcopal Meetings Will Be Continued on Both Sides of the Bay.

Episcopal mission meetings which will continue in this city and San Francisco for ten days, were begun yesterday in Oakland at St. John's Church and the Church of the Advent. Rev. Charles Fiske of New Jersey opened the mission in the afternoon at St. John's delivering an address at a children's union Sunday school meeting in the evening. The evening services will be held every night at 7:45 o'clock until February 5 at that church. Rev. James E. Freeman of Forkers, N. Y. opened the mission at the Church of the Advent. He preached in the morning and evening. The evening services will be held there as well as at St. John's until February 5. These pre-Lenten meetings are intended to stimulate religious activity in the bay churches. Both clergymen are prominent in the Episcopal field and are recipients of important parishes.

A conference of missions and stewardship will be held Wednesday and Thursday at the First Baptist Church. On Wednesday addresses will be delivered by Rev. Charles A. Cook of New York and Rev. J. M. Dean of Seattle. Yesterday morning at the Twenty-third Avenue Baptist Church.

Rev. J. A. Cook preached last evening at Grace Methodist Church. Rev. W. K. Guthrie of San Francisco occupied the First Presbyterian Church pulpit Sunday morning.

SCEPTICAL PEOPLE

Who Question the Authenticity of Vinol Testimonials Should Read the Following

Last season we published a letter from the Rev. George W. Ruland, Keene, N. H. in which he stated that he did not believe there was any other medicine which could equal the health restoring and strength creating properties of the cod liver oil preparation Vinol as it had done for him more than was claimed for it.

The authenticity of this statement was evidently doubted by a resident of New Haven Conn. as the following correspondence would indicate:

Dear Sir: Will you kindly inform me if the enclosed Vinol testimonial from you is genuine and greatly oblige.

Yours respectfully,
E. L. Austin

250 Orchard St., New Haven Conn.

(Rev. George W. Ruland's reply)

Mr. E. L. Austin:

Dear Sir: Replying to your courteous inquiry I take pleasure in saying Yes, the testimonial is genuine and I would add more emphatic words to express my confidence in Vinol as a blood and nerve tonic and a safe restorative.

Yours respectfully,
George W. Ruland

Mr. A. B. Specht of the Owl Drug Co. says:

Vinol is simply the medicinal elements of cod liver oil in concentrated form, the useless oil eliminated and tonic iron added and it is found to create strength and health for run-down, debilitated people old people, weak, sickly women and children, nursing mothers and after a severe sickness or if it fails to cure a hacking cough, chronic cold, throat or bronchial trouble we will return every cent paid for it. —The Owl Drug Company.

Note—While we are sole agents for Vinol in Oakland it is now for sale at the leading drug store in nearly every town and city in the country. Look for the Vinol agency in your town.

INJURED IN TROLLEY CRASH

Twenty Badly Shaken Up in a Collision at Thirteenth and Broadway.

Twenty passengers were badly shaken up and a dozen slightly injured in a collision early last evening between two street cars at Broadway and Thirteenth street. Both cars were somewhat damaged, and only a lessening of speed at the crossing prevented a casualty. Misunderstanding as to right of way was the cause of the collision.

THE KNOWN INJURED.
Mrs. Margaret Thompson, private secretary to Secretary James Pilling of Idera Park, cut and bruised. Sybil Page actress with the Idera Park company, bruised and suffering from shock.

L. Hughes member of Idera Park orchestra, badly bruised on legs. W. D. Ford 307 Chestnut street, Oakland, bruised and right leg injured.

Edward Dillon, 371 Hayes street, Oakland, cut by flying glass.

Otto Schmitt telephone lineman residing at 373 Seventh street, Oakland, cut and bruised.

T. H. Crawford, motorman of Thirteenth street car, hurt about legs by being caught in the wreckage.

ACCUSE EACH OTHER.

The blame for the accident has not been placed. Both Crawford and James Forrest, motorman of the Telegraph avenue car, claim to have had the right-of-way. Forrest when he realized that a collision was likely turned on full power in hopes of clearing the Thirteenth-street tracks.

Schmitt who was seated on the front of the Telegraph avenue car states Forrest was not to blame, and Conductor A. G. Alves of the same car, stated he had the right-of-way.

Crawford the motorman of the Thirteenth street car, which was east-bound declares that he allowed sufficient time for the other car to pass, but was unable to stop his vehicle, owing to the wet tracks after he had turned on the power.

The wrecking crew was summoned but before they could begin operation they had to secure a chair from the Oakland fire department to pull the cars apart. A dozen inspectors of the Oakland Traction Consolidated were on the scene almost as soon as the accident had occurred and made every effort to suppress details. General Superintendent Potter declined to say anything.

DIES AT THE CITY PRISON

David Powers, Held for Insanity, Passes Away Very Suddenly

After remaining in the city prison over night, David Powers, taken into custody Saturday afternoon on suspicion of insanity died yesterday morning following an illness of considerable duration.

Powers was temporarily deranged as the result of physical suffering. When taken into custody by Policeman Duane, he was wandering down Adeline street barefooted, carrying his shoes in his hands. Shortly after being taken to the city jail he became suddenly ill and was treated by Dr. E. N. Ewer.

Previous to the time of his arrest he had been under the care of Dr. J. F. Rehner, who was treating him for heart trouble.

Decedent resided at 1112 Third street. He was a painter 47 years of age. An inquest is to be held.

Table linen and bed linen may be neatly and satisfactorily darned on a sewing machine. A soft piece of linen not new should be darned under the worn place or hole. The linen should be held firmly and sewed back and forth as in darning using fine cotton and a local tension for the work. A two thread in 4 is better than a one for darning. Use an irregular outline around the darn and bring the rows of stitching close together as possible.

ISAAC MAGNIN PASSES AWAY

Well Known San Francisco Merchant Called to Final Rest.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 28.—Isaac Magnin, one of San Francisco's best known merchants, died at his home on Clay street yesterday afternoon, after an illness of four weeks. Heart disease was the cause of death.

The decedent was born at Kronen, Holland, in 1842. When twelve years of age he and his father came to America. He started in business in Mexico. Shortly afterward he opened a store in New Orleans and remained there until the civil war when he joined the Confederate army. After the war he went to London and started in business but returned to America in 1876, settling in this city.

At the time of the fire Mr. Magnin was in Europe. As soon as he learned of the conditions here he immediately returned to superintend the erection and opening of his new store on Van Ness avenue.

Decedent leaves a wife and eight children—Emmanuel, Victor, Samuel, Grover and Joseph, Mrs. S. S. Rae, Mrs. L. Gassner and Mrs. L. Siegel of Los Angeles—who is at present in New York has been telegraphed for. The arrangements for the funeral have not yet been perfected.

TEA
The modestest thing in the world is tea. It is only tea!

Leaving her mother alone at home for a short time Saturday night, the daughter of Mrs. Ann Cary of 1460 Ninth street, was startled, upon her return, to find that her mother had passed away. Mrs. Cary's body was on the floor and it is supposed that she died from heart failure. In falling to the floor she sustained a severe bruise on the head which is thought to have been partly responsible for her sudden demise. Mrs. Cary was eighty years of age and a widow.

If sick headache is misery, what are Carters' Little Liver Pills if they will positively cure it? People who have them speak frankly of their worth. They are small and easy to take.

ICE TRUST ON GRIDDLE

Prosecution Begun in the State of Missouri—Depositions Are Taken.

NORFOLK, Va., Jan. 28.—The ice trust prosecution by the State of Missouri against the Polar Wave Ice Company, the Merchants' Ice Company and others, came up in Norfolk today for the taking of depositions made by F. A. Stillwell, formerly a restaurant proprietor in St. Louis who declared that he had been buying ice from the Merchants' Ice Company in that city for 17½ cents per hundred pounds when the price was suddenly jumped to 25 cents per hundred pounds. Stillwell said he refused to pay the increase and sought to buy from other companies in St. Louis, all of which refused to sell to him.

A native guide told the prospectors that one summer the catch of seal and walrus was very poor that year and the tribes found itself at the approach of the cold weather practically unprovided for. The winter was severe. One heavy blizzard followed another all through the season and the natives were unable to hunt or fish and before the warm weather came again they were all dead.

The skeletons are scattered over a very wide area with in almost every instance, the remnants of bows and arrows and other crude implements for hunting and fishing.

If you once try Carter's Little Liver Pills for sick headache, biliousness, constipation, you will never be without them. They are purely vegetable, small and easy to take. Don't forget this.

TOOK WOMEN OUT IN AUTO; NOW IN THE PENITENTIARY

Colorado Man Who Leaves His Wife Pays
Dearly for His Fun With the Girls in Missouri.

Wesley Evett, of Colorado, is serving a term in the penitentiary for embezzlement. He was arrested in Missouri, where he was having a beautiful time taking the woman who had stolen him from his wife automobiling and buying her the sort of clothes she thought were stunning.

Mr. Evett is sentenced to serve six years in the penitentiary, and the woman who made him do the embezzling is somewhere a comfortable way from the penitentiary, wearing the fine clothes that he bought her and telling people how funny it is to think of what Mr. Evett's fool of a wife is trying to do.

Mr. Evett's fool of a wife is young, pretty, sweet tempered and heart broken. She has three little children, and she is spending all of her time now trying to get the man who deserted her pardoned out of the penitentiary, so that he will escape the punishment which he so richly deserves.

Funny, isn't it? Awfully amusing. The woman who is at the bottom of the whole miserable affair says it is.

Two women have done just exactly this same thing. One of them was the wife of a man who afterward became one of the greatest financiers in America. When he was young and easily led he fell in love with a woman and embezzled money to buy her diamonds. He went to the penitentiary in Pennsylvania, and the wife he had neglected and tried his best to forget took her two boys and went to Pennsylvania, too. She hired a little house as close to the walls of the penitentiary as she could get and went there to live. She spent every hour of the visitors' day with her husband, and she devoted her whole time and efforts to trying to get him out of prison.

He was pardoned out and the first thing he did was to elope with the woman who had helped to put him there.

The other woman is a newspaper woman, one of the brightest and most successful women in her profession.

Her husband forged some checks to get money to pay for a country home for a woman with whom he was in love.

My newspaper friend knew all about the other woman, but when her husband went to prison she walked to the door of the penitentiary with him, and every day after that she wrote him a letter, a letter so full of love and courage and devotion that it ought to have melted a heart of stone. She spent her whole time going from one man of influence to another, begging him to help her get her husband out of prison. She got him out, and the third day he was at home she found him writing a letter to the other woman, making an appointment to take her out to dinner to discuss a trip to Europe together.

A man who will desert his wife and children once will do it again—if he gets a chance.

The particular woman in the particular case is nothing but the chance he's eagerly looking for.

If it wasn't that woman it would be another one.

The wife deserter is like the wife beater; he really can't help what he does; it is bred in the bone.

And the sooner a woman gets rid of a husband of either sort the better off she is.

Poor little Mrs. Evett, of Colorado, should be glad to have such a man just as far away from her as he can be put. Her devotion to him, the man who has deserted her twice, may seem a beautiful thing in the eyes of sentimentalists, but it will lose her more friends than it will gain for her.

You feel sorry for the little mongrel that grovels under your threatened kick, but you don't like him half as well as you do the bull terrier that you're afraid to kick, do you?

When bread is given to children under a year and a half old it should be sliced very thinly, buttered lightly and given in small quantities.

If troubled with pleurisy apply flannel cloths wrung out of hot water, to which a small quantity of mustard has been added. Change the cloth often.

Over entertainment is exceedingly harmful to babies. They will be less nervous and more healthy if left to amuse themselves more than they usually are.

"GIRL WITH THE ANGEL FACE" FULL OF SURPRISES

Miss Violet B. Conrad Has a "Surprise Wedding" and Later Disappears on Her Honeymoon.

NEW YORK, Jan. 23.—With as much secrecy as she had thrown around her "surprise wedding," Mrs. Charles Ridgley Elliott, who, before her romantic wedding on Sunday night, was Miss Violet Blossom Conrad, disappeared on her honeymoon. She did not let even her most intimate friends into the secret of her bridal tour.

Miss Conrad's engagement to Mr. Elliott has been kept a profound secret, and until a few minutes before their wedding took place none knew of it save themselves. It all happened at a "surprise-party" given Miss Conrad in the Knickerbocker hotel.

When the guests assembled to do honor to Miss Conrad, who is a daughter of Major Casper H. Conrad, of the Eighth Infantry, U. S. A., and who is known as "the girl with the angel face," because of her great beauty, they had no idea that they themselves were going to be surprised. But Miss Conrad turned the tables on them, for she came to the party escorted by Mr. Elliott, and announced that they were going to be married there and then. That was done, the Rev. H. Marsh Warren, the hotel chaplain, performing the ceremony.

Mr. Elliott, who is a wealthy Bostonian, and who has known Miss Conrad for some time, has been let into the secret of the surprise party to be given by Miss Conrad's mother to celebrate her daughter's twenty-fourth birthday. Like all confiding swains, he couldn't keep the secret from his fiancée, and both agreed to make what was supposed to be the surprise of the evening a very small event. Indeed, they decided that they would be married then and there at the dinner.

Of course, when the blushing bride-to-be was ushered into the dining-room where the twenty guests were assembled she simulated great surprise. Congratulations were showered upon her. A few minutes before the ceremony was to be performed Mrs. Conrad was let into the secret. She gave her hearty consent to the union, and with her daughter and prospective son-in-law and the invited guests waited at the door of the private dining-room. Suddenly it opened and Dr. Warren, with Albert J. Field, who acted as best man, appeared. Then, to the amazement of the guests, the wedding ceremony was performed.

Mrs. Elliott was born at Fort Randall, S. D. She was known as the daughter of the regiment and is the toast of its officers to this day.

Because of her beauty Mrs. Elliott has been a favored subject by celebrated artists and sculptors. In Blashfield's panel "Progress" in the State House at Des Moines, Iowa, she is represented as a triad of angels.

This is a picture of Mrs. "Tay Pay" O'Connor, wife of the famous Irish parliamentarian and newspaper man, who recently made an extended stay in this country, and who agrees with Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish that American women will do much better to do their shopping and have their dressmaking done at home than by calling on the artists of Paris and London.

RECEIVED WAGES OF SORT OF A LIFE THEY CHOSE

Woman Who Killed Man in Washington and Youth Who Murdered Girl in Boston Justified.

A middle-aged woman killed an old man in Washington because the old man had tired of her and the two children she had borne him without the sanction of the marriage ceremony.

A young woman killed a young man in Boston because the young man was tired of her, and had married a newer and a prettier and a wiser woman. They both received simply the wages which they had carefully earned by their methods of life.

They received simply the wages of the sort of life they chose to lead.

What does a woman expect when a man tells her that he loves her so much that he will do anything in the world for her—except marry her?

If he loves her so dearly, why does he turn pale and hint at important business which will call him out of town the very moment the poor woman, who is trying to make herself believe him, mentions a wedding ring?

A woman sued a Western city for damages the other day because she fell into an open sewer and broke her shoulder.

The city proved that the open sewer was guarded on both sides by a large sign, which said: "Danger! Keep Away!" in big letters, and the woman lost her suit.

She said in court she could read, but that she was thinking of something else as she walked toward the sewer and did not stop to look at the sign. Every one in the courtroom felt sorry for the woman, for she was old and ignorant and helpless, but no one questioned the justice of the verdict against her.

The city had put up the sign; it was her own fault, or, at least, her own misfortune, that she did not read it and protect herself.

Common sense, that great safeguard of a woman's reputation, has put a danger sign a mile high all around every man who asks a woman to love him and forgets to ask her to marry him.

If the woman is so ignorant or so stupid that she cannot see the sign, she will have to abide by the consequences, cruel and unmerciful though they be.

There is no understanding of a woman who will throw away her good name for a man, let him make a toy of her for years, bear him children in anguish, stand by him through sickness and adversity, and still expect that some day, some time, he will marry her. Why should he marry her? When she has already given him her life, her good name, everything, for nothing. Why should he pay her for it with the protection of his name? He ought to? Well, perhaps he ought, but we're not talking of things as they should be, but of things as they are.

The sort of man who will accept such a terrible sacrifice from a woman is not the sort of man who will stand by her when she needs him.

The sort of woman who will make such a terrible sacrifice for a man just because she imagines herself in love with him should stand by the principle she tries to believe she is following, and when it comes time to take her medicine take it and say no more.

What is lightly gained is lightly held, my poor sister whose heart is aching with the humiliation of finding yourself deserted for a woman who is not so easy as you have proven yourself to be.

A man who is worth all this misery would never dream of asking you to bear it.

This woman in Washington fell in love with the old man she killed, when she knew that he was married.

The man deserted his wife for her, as he was trying to desert her for another woman when she killed him.

DRESS OF WOMEN

A mingling of applique work with fancy stitching is seen on the new fancy work which is to be used on useful articles for bedrooms and dining-rooms.

Colored embroidery on white linen is much used for pin cushions. The designs that are in fashion at the moment are scattered and rather slight and dainty.

The most attractive work, and also the most difficult, is that which includes open-work embroidery in white thread and the colored embroidery in the same design.

A laundry bag made of cotton eta-mine and lined with yellow satin had a decoration around the bottom of chintz applique in yellow and green. The design was of tall yellow poppies with green leaves and the applique was so put on that the flowers stood up all around the bottom of the bag. The foliage, of course, was around the bottom edge of the bag, while the flowers came half way to the top.

If a belt is worn inside of the waist have it feather-stitched to the back and side seam straight across, and a third of an inch above the waist line for the bottom edge. This is eased between the seams and fastens in front with two hooks and eyes. A waist is not faced around the lower edge now, for the outside belt does away with that finish; the belt of material is interlined with canvas, lined if thin and stitched several times. Two large hooks and eyes on waist and skirt belt keep the back of the waist down and the skirt and waist together.

For the girl who undertakes her own dressmaking nothing is more effective than the simple frock of white mousseline de soie or tulle, on which is embroidered a flower pattern in pale pink, mauve and blue. This is by no means difficult to carry out, the narrowest satin ribbon being chosen for the work. The pattern representing sprays, festoons and even baskets of roses, caught up with knots and bows of ribbon, is stamped on to the silk muslin which forms the basis of the dress, and embroidered in ribbon, the scheme suggesting the dainty design and coloring of a Dresden china shepherdess.

Many persons who say they "cannot take milk" because they drink it at meals as if it were water would find that no disagreeable effect would follow when used in place of food and not as a food accompaniment.

HEALTH! BEAUTY!

Severe sore throat is often relieved by sipping sweetened water in which there is a pinch of cayenne pepper.

Two ounces of boric acid crystals dropped in a glass quart jar and the jar filled with water makes a saturated solution. It is useful in cases of burns and is an effectual antiseptic.

Do not overlook the value of proper and rational exercise. All the muscles of the body must be exercised to be of value to one.

To digest milk easily it should be slowly stirred. When a glassful is taken at a gulp or two it coagulates in large curds in the stomach; these, being very dense, are digested with difficulty by the gastric juice.

MAKES AN APPEAL TO MOTHERS OF OAKLAND

Woman Asks All to Help Stamp Out Sin in City—Comes to the Support of Rev. Dr. Dille.

While some of our Oakland milliners, who can do much to stem the current of crimes which are cursing even our fair city of schools and churches, and thus drop a pearl of purity in the ocean of crimes. The great need of today is more perfect homes and wise devoted mothers. It lies within your power to nip crime in the bud by en-twinning loving arms about your young daughters, and thus hold them by the strong ties of mother-love that temptation and sin may have no place to gain a foothold!

Awaken, mothers, to the sacredness of your high calling. Be to your husband the "only woman" in the world; to your sons, the sweetest mother, and to your daughters, a constant, confident friend. Turn the fortune teller from your door, neglect the skating rink, card party and theater until your heart has become so in tune with the Perfect One and the "beauty of holiness" that these questionable amusements will cease to have a charm for you, and you will begin to know what real happiness is. Every crime is committed by some mother's son or daughter. I appeal to every mother to try with me this year to be a more perfect wife and mother—the greatest honor that can be won by any woman!

The innocent milliners need have no anxiety. "Good vinegar works itself clear." The putting down of such crime is of no more importance than the supposed injuries.

Dr. Dille, who holds the love and confidence of all of Oakland's best citizens, is not the man to make a statement which he cannot substantiate. And any one who intimates that he has left the city because he is not prepared to meet his opponents, does not know Dr. Dille. We admire him for his courage in doing what he feels to be his duty.

But let us go back a step farther and pass a few minutes with the mothers,

A friend to mothers,
MRS. O. S. DEAN.

OLGA NETHERSOLE LOSES COAT VALUED AT $3000

Millionaire J. W. Gillespie of New York
Probably Will Replace the Costly Garment.

SANTA BARBARA, Jan. 28.—Olga Nethersole has lost a Russian sable coat worth $3000, and Millionaire J. W. Gillespie, a prominent New York and Santa Barbara clubman, will probably replace the costly garment.

The coat has been lost in the express. It is worth something like $3000, of which sum the express company will doubtless contribute one-third, or the snug little nest egg of a hundred dollars. Tracers have failed to locate it, and Gillespie will probably investigate the New York fur market at once.

Meanwhile Olga Nethersole has a stunning gray squirrel coat, which she may use.

After leaving Los Angeles early in the month the actress visited Santa Barbara. Gillespie arranged a luncheon at his beautiful country place near here. At his Mediterranean villa a mercy party spent the afternoon. Then Olga Nethersole was taken back to her car in the Panhard.

At the car she remembered leaving the Russian sable coat at the villa. Of course, she said nothing of its cost.

It was arranged that Mr. Gillespie should send it on to Oakland. Next day he expressed his parcel.

"Value?" asked the express agent. "One hundred dollars," replied Gillespie.

But the coat failed to reach the actress. Inquiry was made. No one knew anything about the coat at Oakland, nor does any one know now, at least any one who will tell. Mr. Gillespie has gone to Mexico with a party of friends in a private car. His friends here are having a great deal of fun by telegraph over the affair. They are asking how much Russian sable coat by the case.

CHISLERS WOULD HAVE NO POETRY ON TOMBSTONES

"Here Lies the Bones of Mary Ann Jones," and Effusions of a Similar Nature Barred.

SIOUX CITY, Ia., Jan. 28.—Twice Eastern cemetery, will probably head the petition of protest:

Here lies what's left of Mary Jones. May angels fair watch o'er her bones; Her name was Smith, it was not Jones, But Jones is used to rhyme with bones.

There will be no effort on the part of the men who remember us when we are gone at so much per, to change the inscriptions on the tombstones already set. Especially will Shakespeare's tomb be left unmolested, for these long-distance scoffers of the great bard have a wholesome fear of the malediction wrought in the enduring tablet o'er his grave, which will be remembered, sans its old English spelling, as:

Kind friend, for Jesus' sake forbear To dig the dust enclosed here;

Blest be the man who spares these stones.

And curst be he who moves these bones.

The Marble and Granite Workers also condemned the wholesalers who are selling materials at retail.

ON LIFE'S HIGHWAY

By WILLIS LEONARD CLANAHAN.

I am a traveler upon a way
Where thorns are sharp, and where my tired feet
Drag wearily; where suns relentless beat,
And no cool shade is seen, where I may lay
My throbbing head; no shrine where I may pray
Deliverance from sorrow; no retreat
Where I may rest; no fountains pure and sweet
Where I may drink when ends the weary day.
Yet I press onward to the distant goal;
Though far away, a wanderer 'neath strange skies,
I see the vision, rounded, perfect, whole;
I see its splendid towers and walls arise,
And patiently I curb my eager soul,
Knowing the need that waits my lagging eyes.

LOVE'S SILENCE

No wealth for me, no lasting fame,
Nor pedestal on which to stand;
No longing for undying name,
But just a soul to understand!
A soul that knows, tho' tongue be still,
Eyes meeting eyes in glances kind,
And, meeting, know the sweets that fill
The heart. What more need mortal find?

Obscurity—none know how sweet
It is until the heart has found
A kindred one to ever beat
In harmony. 'Tis not the sound
Of voice, tho' soft, or song that flows,
Or whispered words in low replies,
Instead, the silence love knows
That show where true contentment lies.
—Will F. Griffin in Milwaukee Sentinel.

Let Us Improve the Streets.

The citizens of Oakland should inaugurate an energetic campaign for street improvements, not only by the municipality but by individual property-owners. In many parts of the city the streets are in a deplorable condition, while the sidewalks, particularly in front of unimproved property, are a disgrace to the owners of the fronting real estate. The condition calls for a speedy remedy.

Public spirit and public opinion should combine to arouse property-owners to a sense of their duty to themselves and the public. The accepted streets are in need of extensive repairs, while many of the unaccepted streets are in a shocking state because they have been neither paved nor macadamized. A great many crosswalks are urgently needed. Of course, the unusually heavy and protracted rains are largely responsible for the bad condition of the streets, which have been burdened with an unprecedentedly heavy traffic of late, but official neglect and evasion of private responsibility are blameable for much. Too much indulgence has been shown property-owners who will not improve their holdings nor lay down decent sidewalks, and the street department has displayed a woeful lack of energy in repairing streets and mending broken crosswalks.

Let it be admitted that the growth of the city has outstripped all legitimate expectation and has gone far ahead of the revenue available for street improvements: nevertheless, the demands of the hour are upon us and are imperative. Traffic must be provided for if the progress of the city is to be maintained, and a general improvement of streets and highways must be inaugurated if Oakland is to hold her place among the leading cities of the Pacific Coast.

The condition is one that no man should blink at. It calls for energetic enlightened treatment on a broad and liberal scale. The people of Oakland are in remarkable accord on progressive improvements—a most gratifying contrast to years of spasmodic endeavor rendered fruitless by parochial contention and narrow conceptions—and the street question is one that should appeal with tremendous force to united sentiment. It is something that should enlist the best thought and the sympathetic energy of every citizen. There never was a time when street improvements counted for so much or were so closely bound up with the growth and welfare of the community.

Result of the German Elections.

The returns from the first balloting in the German elections is a decided surprise. Instead of making substantial gains, as all cablegrams prognosticated, the Social Democrats have lost heavily. The Catholic center has also lost a trifle. On the other hand, all the Imperialistic groups have gained, hence the hands of the Kaiser have been greatly strengthened. But a great number of reballots have been demanded, and the final result may materially change the present complexion of the new Reichstag.

The returns from the poll are regarded as especially significant because it was a coalition of the Social Democrats and Clericals that compelled Chancellor von Buelow to appeal to the country, and it is those two groups alone that have suffered in the poll. Apparently the German electorate is not in sympathy with the obstructive tactics of the Socialistic and Clerical coalition, and is disposed to hold up the Kaiser's hands in his plans for strengthening the empire abroad. That is indicated by the notable gains of the National Liberals, Bismarck's old political organization, who are strongly in favor of an aggressive foreign policy and of a broad development of the imperial system. The National Liberals strongly backed Bismarck's anti-Catholic policy, and supported the drastic Falk laws, which have all been repealed since the rapprochement between the crown and the church.

Whether the result renders more difficult an adjustment of our unsatisfactory tariff relations with Germany remains to be seen. The severe reverses suffered by the Social Democrats would so indicate, but the Agrarians have also lost several seats, and they constitute the element that is most resolutely set against the importation of American food products. The Kaiser himself is very favorably disposed toward the United States, and if his hands are not too strongly tied will be disposed to further liberal commercial relations with this country. He can congratulate himself that the nation has rallied to him, and has apparently put it out of the power of the Social Democrats and Clericals to combine and frustrate the legislation necessary to promote his policy of internal and external development.

THE COMPETITION OF ORIENTALS.

EDITOR TRIBUNE: I am not altogether an admirer of Dr. Jordan, but he was grandly right when he said that it pays to be a gentleman. Race prejudice and hatred are inseparable from ignorance and superstition, neither of them gentlemanly qualities and quite unprofitable.

Neither is it possible for a gentleman to assume superiority that is not apparent, nor can he appropriate a territory many times as large as he can use and command all others to keep away. It is downright cruelty to the uneducated among American workers to teach them that they can avoid Asiatic competition by having no Orientals here. It does not require a sage's wisdom to see that with Japan and China entering the field of manufacturing for the world's market we must meet their competition as long as we depend on a foreign market ourselves.

I am a workman and have no wish to compete with Orientals in the labor market, but for that matter I do not want to compete with anybody for the privilege of working and I strongly object to being a market commodity as I must be as long as I sell my labor power.

Gradually we workers are learning that the way to avoid Japanese competition and all other competitions and poverty also is to stop giving four-fifths of our product (see United States census) to an owning non-working class, but vest the ownership of the modern machinery of production in the workers themselves collectively—make usefulness the source and measure of income, and secure to each who has a need to supply the right to work.

This is the one issue in all the world today, the ownership of the tools and appliances of collective industry. A certain class of newspapers and alleged statesmen for reasons perhaps best known to themselves seek to divert attention by trumping up "issues" and questions of all sorts and colors; but as sure as the public school stands the working class will use its increasing intelligence to secure for itself the wealth it alone creates and therefore owns. And there will be plenty of time then to count or measure Dr. Jordan's gentlemen.

W. W. CRANE, CASHIER FOR THE UNION NATIONAL BANK

W. W. CRANE, cashier Union National Bank.

The Popular Young Banker Is Given Responsible Place.

William W. Crane, who has just been elected cashier of the reorganized Union National Bank, is a native of San Francisco, where he was born nearly 37 years ago. He was educated in the public schools of that city, graduating from the High School there.

Mr. Crane entered the service of the Union National Bank seventeen years ago, when barely 20 years of age. His banking experience has all been acquired in this institution under the tutelage of Charles E. Palmer, the former cashier, who in the reorganization of the bank has been elevated to the position of president, to succeed Thomas Prather, who occupied the post for the past twenty years. Until Mr. Crane's recent election to the position of cashier, he occupied the responsible post of paying teller during the greater period of his connection with the bank. His long service in that capacity has given him a wide acquaintance with the people of this city, particularly with those having dealings with the bank. There is no man in the banking business here who is more popular or more highly esteemed. It was doubtless his wide and favorable acquaintance with the people of Oakland, combined with his long experience in the bank and the proof which its new president possessed of his efficiency and sterling integrity, that influenced Mr. Crane's promotion by the new management in the Union National's affairs.

The recent change in the management of the bank is, of course, now a matter of history. When Thomas Prather disposed of his stock to J. Dalzell Brown, vice president and manager of the California Safe Deposit and Trust Company of San Francisco and treasurer of the Western Pacific Railroad Company, he retired from the presidency, and Charles E. Palmer, the former cashier, was elected his successor, Mr. Brown taking the vice presidency on the board. While the practical workings of the bank will be in the hands of Mr. Palmer and Mr. Crane, Mr. Brown will hereafter be the leading spirit of the Union National and the director of its policy. He is regarded as one of the most successful and progressive bankers in the State, having been instrumental in increasing the Safe Deposit and Trust Company's deposits from $1,000,000 to $9,000,000.

It is with such associations that Mr. Crane has thus begun his career as bank cashier.

In social and fraternal life Mr. Crane stands high in the community, being a member of Live Oak Lodge, F. and A. M., Scottish Rite Consistory, Shriner, Oakland Parlor, N. S. G. W., Nile Club and the Home Club, which was organized by the late Mrs. F. M. Smith. His many friends congratulate him on his recent promotion.

MONEY IS NEEDED.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—American Consul General Rodgers at Shanghai cabled the State Department today regarding the Chinese famine. He strongly advised that money contributions be sent instead of food at present. Provisions can be purchased at Shanghai at favorable prices. "Time saved is a great object."

COMPLAINS OF FERRY SERVICE.

EDITOR TRIBUNE: As an American citizen loyal to the city of my adoption, I feel it my duty to call your attention to the present exceedingly poor S. P. ferry service, hoping that conditions may be somewhat improved if not altogether rectified by a little publicity in your columns.

Twice during the present week, or to be more explicit, during the past three days, I have arrived at the Oakland mole just in time to have the waiting room doors slammed in my face and see the boat pull out, leaving behind three or four hundred disconsolate commuters, for the most part workmen and working women who depend on their salaries for their daily bread and who can ill afford to be docked or lose their positions for being habitually late.

If such occurrences were the exception rather than the rule I would personally be the last to raise my voice in protest; but when the same thing happens two or three times every week, without, as far as I can see, any excuse therefor, except the absolute indifference of the S. P. officials to the welfare of the city and the convenience of the public, I feel as if some action should be taken. Realizing the position your paper holds in the journalistic field and the power of the press as a public factor, I appeal to you in behalf of my fellow citizens, trusting that you will find some way to grapple with this matter of such vital import to our city as a whole.

Very truly yours, HUGH M. THOMAS.

Contrary to rule, it appears that some of the most distinguished guests at the dinner of the Gridiron Club, in Washington, were laid on the gridiron, if it be true that Senator Foraker and the President crossed swords over the menu. The banquet seems to have been a rather strenuous affair, the discharge of the colored battalion and the Japanese school question in California figuring rather too prominently to preserve harmony.

LOSES DRAFTS TO SWINDLER

A. J. Moore Is Loser to the Extent of Several Hundred Dollars

By the operations of a swindler, A. J. Moore, a mining stock broker of this city, is a loser by several hundreds of dollars. The swindler stole a quantity of drafts from the Bank of Yellowstone and has been circulating them about under the name of "E. H. Graves".

"Graves" sent a draft to Moore and had the latter send 10,000 shares of Manhattan mining stock to Woodland. Moore learned that the draft was a bogus one, and had the stock returned to him.

Many of the banks of the State are looking for Graves and detectives of the Bankers Association of California and Pinkerton men are working on the case.

NEWS AND GOSSIP OF THE TRACK AND PADDOCK

By LEE DEMIER.

Tobe Ramsey, the King of the Jungs, had $80 against $300 on Grasscut.

"Air Plant" Casey is on his way from the East.

Matt Reese took a bunch of the long green out of the ring when Golden Rule was declared the winner of the second race.

Sidney Brun (Refugee) came up from Ascot to wager on Kercheval.

The Fillmore street contingent, headed by "Spider" Kelly, cashed on the winner of the Burns Handicap.

The Berkeley Club won $1500, and Martin showed a profit of $400 at the close of the day. The Arizona Club won about $2000 and Joe Rarlan about $3200. Ed Soule of the Oakland Club bet $40 on Grasscut at 40 to 1, winning $1600, and his book won about $1800 on the day.

Western Al Smith was given Kercheval very strong from his friend, Jack Atkins. Al informed his many friends to get aboard.

Frank Daraxus, the noted bookmaker and politician, took $5000 out of the ring on the win of Kercheval.

Judge Post, of Sacramento, came down to see the Burns Handicap decided. The judge is a lover of thoroughbreds.

Tommy Fullum, the Brooklyn lad, sent his checks in on Kercheval.

Owner Boots Durnell took Nealon's defeat philosophically. It's part of a day's racing luck, said the noted turfman.

Jockey Koerner was presented with $500 from R. C. Brien, the owner of Kercheval.

Six favorites won at Ascot Saturday.

Bookmaker Johnny Lyons is on the sick list.

Starter Dick Dwyer will be on hand today.

The value of the Burns handicap to the winner was $650.

The following thirty-two bookmakers were in line at Emeryville, Harlem, Scher, Owensboro, Pacific, Western, San Francisco, Oakland, Berkeley, Berkeley, Boston, Stuyvesant, Engstrom, Missouri, Martin, Golden Gate, Central, New York, Arizona, Bohemian, Namo Nevada, Indiside, Rose, Eckert, Walter.

Tommy Cochran, a well-known San Francisco turfite, took $5000 out of the ring on the win of Grasscut.

The Mayland Jockey Club will have a thirteen-day's spring meeting, beginning on April 20, and a fall meeting of the same length, opening on October 20. There will be a thirty-one-day's summer meeting at Kenilworth Park, Buffalo, this year, from June 15 to July 20.

Lexington is to have a spring meeting of seven days, late in April or early in May.

The thousands of TRIBUTE readers that saw the Burns Handicap, and will be with their pockets well filled with the shining gold, Kercheval was the cause of it.

The Los Angeles contingent cleaned up on the win of Kercheval, so did the many TRIBUTE readers.

W. H. Carey, with Big Bill Knapp on his back, won the Santa Anita handicap, which was the feature event at Ascot Saturday.

HIGH SCORES MADE IN RAIN

The small number of marksmen who braved the rain and participated in the shoot at Shellmound park yesterday made some creditable scores and the general average of the afternoon was high.

Gunner H. A. Harris of the Naval Militia officers, shooting with the regulation naval revolver on the 50-yard range, made one of the best scores of the year.

Out of the possible 50 points his figures for the afternoon were 46, 48 and 47. The mark probably will stand for some time before it is excelled.

One of the best bullseye shots of recent making was that of G. C. Gunther of the Germania Schuetzen Verein. His score was 45 and the shot was almost a perfect center. The next best bullseye shot of the club was made by L. Bendel, with a score of 42.

Herman Huber and Fred Schuster of the Germania Schuetzen Verein, in a friendly shoot, and both are champions, the affair was watched with great interest. Huber's score was 228 and Schuster's 225. Both put all their shots above the 22 ring, a feat which would have scored ten consecutive bullseyes had the bullseye target been used.

The following organizations shot at the park yesterday: The Naval Militia officers, the Germania Schuetzen Verein, the Germania Schuetzen Verein, the Golden Gate Rifle and Pistol Club and the San Francisco Schuetzen Verein.

Demier Tips Off Kercheval; Tribune Best Tells of Race

BY FAR the best piece of tipping this season was that by Lee Demier, racing editor of THE TRIBUNE, when he gave Kercheval as his best take-a-chance bet Saturday in the great Burns Handicap. Mr. Demier's information came direct from his correspondents in Los Angeles, and TRIBUNE readers and the many who follow his tips profited handsomely. Mr. Demier's take-a-chance bets have gone through at long odds many times this season, showing how closely he follows the form of the horses as indicated by their workouts. In addition to tipping off the winner of the big race, the Sunday TRIBUNE yesterday gave its readers the best two stories of the Burns that were printed—one by Mr. Demier and the other by Miss Minnie Sanguineti, whose knowledge of horses and horse racing is not equaled by any woman writer in the West.

BIG KILLING ON STANFORD TO REVIVE TENNIS

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 28.—The principal subject discussed at Los Angeles is the victory of Kercheval in the Burns Handicap. Many incidents have come to light and it is the consensus of opinion here that J. J. Ryan, of "get-rich-quick fame" and later ruled off the turf on account of failure to settle markers in the Middle West, made a significant killing at the Ascot Oaks, worth $2000, will be run. Sixty-three miles are entered and C. F. Tanner's Milahora appears to be the favorite. Lady Kitty, Alra, Valerius, Common Sue, L. Rose, Dulcinea, Kirkfield Belle, Jersey Lady, May L. N. Eudora, Saindra and Mabel Hollander are probable starters.

Winning owners—E. Wayland, $6425; J. P. Adkin, $5380; J. A. Bennett, $5315; L. A. Bonas, $3200; J. C. Cur, $2425; E. J. Carmain, $2200; Elmwood Farm, $4470; J. J. Walsh, $4380; R. Bauer, $4025; Mrs. J. H. Harte, $3900; Mrs. G. W. Dodge, $3825; T. M. Cassidy, $3200; Kirkfield, $3225; Mrs. H. Broslak, $2500; L. A. Bonas, $2350; H. O. Best, $2175; B. Schriber, $2250; A. Ross, $2145.

Last week McDaniel carried off the riding honors by piloting five winners: Koerner and Preston 4, Knapp and Keogh 2.

The complete record for the season—Koerner, 4; Harte, 3; Preston, 3; Keogh, 2; S. D. Riley, 1; Keogh, 1; Knapp, 1; Fisher, 1; Boeker, 1; Kent and Sullivan, 1; Boland, 1; Carrol, 1; Kuns, 1; Riley and Talbert, 1; Rose, 1.

LOOKED TO WIN SOUTHERN DERBIES

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 28.—The features of the racing at the Fair Grounds last week were the introduction of Tiling, by many considered the best three-year-old racing here, and the scandal surrounding the ride by Jack Martin on Cilla's Orly II. Investigation of the Martin matter has gone on from day to day without any decision. The officials seem determined to probe the case to the end. It is reasonably certain the steward believes Martin was guilty of restraining his horse with criminal intent and the only loophole through which this star jockey may escape freedom of punishment will be that no absolute proof of his culpability can be established.

Of Tiling just now the most exaggerated opinions are being voiced. He is a candidate for both the local Derbies and in many quarters the belief exists that no colt of his age in previous years has this early shown such marked superiority over those he will have to meet in the big events to be run later on. Tiling will be a strong favorite in both Derbies and the only reasonable contender for him seems to be the Cells colt, Conville, being trained at Memphis.

GOOD CARD AT OCCIDENTAL CLUB

The Occidental club will hold a boxing show next Friday night at Dreamland pavilion, San Francisco, when the usual number of six-round bouts will be put on. In the main event Dick Sullivan, the welterweight who achieved so much success when he invaded the Hawaiian Islands, will stack up against Frank Mayfield, one of the best scrappers in the four-round set.

The return of "Kid" McFadden to the ring will be good news, as the old red-top was a big foot and one days gone by. No longer a mere willing fighter over done the gloves than brick-toss, but since his trip to merry old England the "Kid" has refrained from indulging in his favorite sport. Phil Knight, a seasoned miller of considerable repute, will be McFadden's opponent.

1059 BROADWAY

We either own or are exclusive agents for all property we offer for sale. We guarantee to make deliveries at prices quoted.

SPECIALS

$225,000 Broadway corner 100 feet square, 2-story brick improvements. This is under old leases that will soon expire. Judging by recent Broadway sales, this property is really worth close to $300,000.

$35,000 Cheapest inside building site in Oakland. Lot 50x100, on the south side of Tenth street, between Washington and Clay, 75 feet from the property of the Owl Drug Store. The corner next to this on Clay street is held at about double the price of this property. In fact, there is no other property on this street as well located that can be had at anything like this price. We have a short option on it, and if it is not sold in a few days the price will be materially advanced. The improvements are old and of not much value, but are paying about bank interest on the investment at present. Permit has been issued for a modern three-story business block between this and drug store.

$60,000 Income property---one of the finest set of apartment houses in the city, on corner of 14th and Brush sts.; 6 splendid 2-story buildings, 12 flats of 6 and 7 rooms now renting for $500 a month, old rates; will easily rent for $600. Buildings are constructed so that another story can be added or can be raised and stores put beneath. Ground fronts 136 feet on 14th by 100 ft. on Brush. This is so close to business center and such a desirable locality that it will rapidly increase in value and always be rented.

$650 a Month. Located at S. W. Corner Seventh and Webster.

$65,000 under a cash bonded lease for five years and only $650 per foot for this corner, 100 feet square, right in the center of Oakland. LESS THAN HALF PRICE compared with other cities. It is doubtful whether this property could be duplicated in any other city in the United States of like importance for less than $1500 per foot.

$65,000 A good buy on Tenth street between Broadway and Franklin, 50x100 feet.

$30,000 A fine piece of property on San Pablo, facing Grove and 20th streets, 33½ x 100 feet, almost as good as a corner. This section is improving so rapidly that this will soon be worth double the above price. This is good for another quick turn.

$18,500 Big corner that will grow in value, on 7th and Linden, 75x107 feet, one and two-story buildings. Rents can be made $200 per month.

$16,500 Corner of 8th and Madison---3-story building of 20 rooms and cottage in rear; total rental $210 per month. This is also good for another quick turn.

CHINATOWN, Pays 17 %

$22,500 $320 per month income under cash bonded lease, two-story building in excellent repair, stores and apartments on Ninth street near Webster. Act promptly if you want this.

Extra Good Small Investments

$6000 Nothing better for its size---A splendid two-story building of two strictly modern flats of six and seven rooms, renting for $82.50 per month; ground is 34 feet front by 80 feet deep; located on Fifth and Myrtle streets. This will sell again quick for $7000.

$9000 Jackson street between Second and Third streets---Lot 66 2-8x75 feet; now occupied by two good-sized houses that should rent for $85 or $90 per month; suitable for warehouse site.

$12,500 One of the most complete high-class residences to be had in Oakland. This house has ten rooms, some of which are small, but the owner has spent thousands of dollars on the interior finishings and extras which make it a model little home. The dining room is paneled in solid oak, a first-class butler's pantry has recently been added; the bath room alone cost $1000, and the mantels and fixtures throughout are the very best to be had. This price includes elegant and complete furnishings, consisting of velvet tapestries, solid mahogany sets, and very best high-grade carpets; lot 65x134, with an extra key, 10x115, which could be used as a driveway; located on Adeline street near Twelfth, which is one of the best residence sections of Oakland. Altogether this is just the thing for any one looking for a comfortable and valuable home, convenient to the business center. Terms can be arranged.

$9500 Corner Eighth and Peralta, 60x104.34 feet; good two-story nine-room modern house. This is close in and a good little investment.

$8500 On sunny side of Eleventh street between Castro and Brush, good nine-room modern house with lot 35x100. This should double in value in a very short time, as no section of Oakland has a better prospective future than this.

$4500 New two-story six-room house; modern and up to date in every way; rents for $50 per month; lot 32x116 feet; located one block from Thirty-sixth and Telegraph. This is a dandy little bargain---put your money here and watch it grow.

$2800 Very attractive new four-room bungalow in East Oakland, best plumbing, bath room, large pantry, plenty of closet room, gas and electricity; lot 40x100 feet in a desirable neighborhood.

$8000 Fine Fruitvale home on Bray avenue, seven room modern house, barn, windmill and tank, three rooms finished in tank house; ground 100x150 feet.

PERSONALS

A Wonderful Adviser A TRUE PSYCHIC IS W. A. SHERMAN

LOCATED AT DELMAR'S INSTITUTE OF PSYCHOLOGY,
469 Tenth Street

The extraordinary clairvoyant powers of Mr. Sherman combined with his superior knowledge of palmistry and the forces, enable him to read human life with unerring accuracy from infancy to old age; his powers are wonderful and indisputable, his advice is reliable, his information clear, concise and to the point in love, courtship, marriage, divorce, sales, wills, patents, lawsuits, personal and financial conditions, property, insurance, mortgage, oil and mining claims.

COME AND BE HEALED.
If you are sick in mind or body, he will, without asking questions or annoying physical examinations, tell you the nature and cause of your disorder, and show you the way to perfect health, success and happiness.

WITHOUT ASKING A QUESTION.
Without any previous knowledge and using no natural means of knowing who you are, whence or for what you came, he tells your name, age, occupation and what you called for; in fact, everything he tells you names of friends and enemies; who is true and who is false; tells whom and when you will marry, giving names, dates, facts and location, taking no fee in advance and accepting none unless satisfaction is given.

SPECULATION AND INVESTMENT.
His advice is much sought for by those contemplating investing and speculating; the dollar properly invested today has seldom failed to make the poor man rich.

W. A. SHERMAN
I will forfeit $500 where I fail to teach you how to fascinate any one you desire, how to make your enemies friends, cause a spouse marriage with the one you choose, give you good luck, remove evil influences, reunite the separated, locate the earth's buried treasure, settle old estates that time has placed beyond the lawyer's shrewdness, make you successful in your business, and positively guarantee everything.

SPIRITED RACE NOW ON AMONG THE CONTESTANTS

Almost All of the Leaders for the Prizes Offered by the Tribune Are Making Gains.

A spirited race is now on with unabated interest, centering in no one class, the idea being with each contestant to win the prize for which they are working. Almost all of the leaders made gains yesterday. It can not be taken for granted that those who hold first honors now will necessarily be the winners in the end.

Not a contestant in the race should be discouraged, if he or she is not at the head of the list at present. The only and best plan for success is to become determined in the matter and with that thought only get right in and by good, persistent work, coupled with an energetic action, canvass for the votes and coupons, make a race well worth running.

The candidate who works steadily and earnestly, and makes daily gains, is the one who is most likely to win in the end. Those who are behind now have the chance of their life to make up their lost time and reach their former position at the head of the procession.

With each day the interest is becoming keener. New candidates enter the field as "dark horses" and the old ones are there with a firmer determination to win, and each hour brings in large bunches of coupons, and the issuing of the vote certificates goes merrily on.

You must remember that only twenty-eight working days, excluding Sundays, remain until the close of the contest, and that every available hour must be put in, in securing the votes to win.

Make the most of each day and make every minute count. The contestants realize that time is growing short and are not losing one single opportunity to secure every vote and coupon within their reach.

The remaining days of the contest will, no doubt, be full of anxiety and hard work for the candidates and their friends for the rich prizes offered by the TRIBUNE, in the greatest popularity contest ever inaugurated by a coast paper.

Get out at once and bring the friends who promised you subscriptions into line. If you cannot see them, hit the telephone, as that is a valuable assistant in getting in touch with your friends.

DON'T GIVE THEM A CHANCE TO CHANGE THEIR MINDS, but get right to work on them and do not relent until you have secured the necessary subscriptions.

BEST VIRTUE IS PATIENCE

Minister Applies Golden Rule to Employees of Street-Car Company.

"The Golden Rule as Applied to the Car Company, 16 Employees and the Public," was the subject of a sermon delivered last night by Rev. Dwight E. Potter, pastor of the Union-street Presbyterian Church of Oakland. Several weeks ago Dr. Potter circulated a list of questions among car employees, accompanying them with the request that the men correspond with him.

As the result of the replies he received to his queries, Dr. Potter said the railway employees' greatest virtue was patience. It was his belief, he said, that Christianity should be practiced in daily life, in shopping, on the street cars and in the use of the telephone.

The railroad's religion was exemplified by the rule book of the Oakland Traction Consolidated. "I have carefully examined the company's book of instructions," said Dr. Potter, "and I believe that if they were obeyed to the letter the public would have no cause to complain. The greatest virtue of the conductor is patience.

There are about 800 men in the street-car service here, and that to which they are forced to submit is enough to try anyone's patience. It is surprising the number of people we meet in our daily life who are doing nothing more or less than 'bumming' their way through the world. It is on the street car that we see the majority of this class. Those who evade paying their five-cent fare cause the conductor trouble, for there is no telling when a 'potter' is on the car. When a person rides on a car he should pay for the privilege.

"Finally—the public. A great number of the people attempt to dodge fares, thereby doing themselves and the conductor an injustice. I believe that if a man is a Christian he should show it without wearing a badge. But before this be possible the virtues of unselfishness, honesty and gratitude must be possessed by the public."

TOY FACTORY FOR FOLSOM

Prison Committee in Report Will Recommend Such an Industry.

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 28.—The assembly holdover committee on prisons and reformatory institutions will submit its report today in which it will be recommended that a toy factory be established at Folsom prison so that the prisoners will have something useful to do after the supply of rock has been exhausted to such an extent that the quarry will no longer be a profitable proposition.

The State law requires that the prisons cannot maintain any industry in competition with existing private plants. At the present time practically all the toys in this country are manufactured in either Germany or France. The committee would have the convicts at Folsom turning out these little novelties, and in the future Young America may expect to see printed on his playthings "Made at Folsom prison" instead of "Made in Germany" or "Made in France."

CHEMICALS WILL BE PRODUCED IN STEGE

The Pacific Fertilizing Company of Berkeley has purchased for $100,000 the large plant of the Stauffer Chemical Works at Stege. The transfer of the plant is of interest because of the recent attempt of many citizens of the West End to drive the fertilizing company out of Berkeley on account of obnoxious odors. The manufacturers of West Berkeley took the side of the fertilizing concern and a lively fight was imminent. The removal of the plant to Stege ends the trouble.

Acids and kindred chemicals will be manufactured at the Berkeley plant and the obnoxious smelling products will be made at Stege. E. H. Hargins is general manager and C. A. Falke superintendent of the company.
